Princess Party Foods

Crown Sandwiches

Nothing's easier—or more kid friendly—than classic PB&J sandwiches cut out into themed shapes. Bonus: no crusts!

Fruit Wands

Give fresh fruit a whimsical twist by cutting stars out of melon or pineapple, then skewering it (dye bamboo skewers pink) and adding other favorite fruits.

Welcome back spring!
 This new Ready for the Birds WoolFelt® Table Mat from Elizabeth Coughlin Designs is a perfect way to bring a touch of spring to your home. It's a pdf pattern only found at ecoughlindesigns.blogspot.com.

Another awesome new WoolFelt® pdf pattern is this Tutti Fruity Penny Pincher by Betz White.

Stash your cash in these cute and functional coin pouches. Each fruit shaped felt purse has an easy-to-install flex-frame closure. Betz recently started a new School of Wool Facebook Group. She is encouraging all wool enthusiasts to join! Information at betzwhite.com.

Sew your way to happily ever after with a new book by Heidi Boyd titled Fairy Tale Sewing. Bring story time to life with this collection of imaginative projects including 20 whimsical toys, dolls and softies, many made with WoolFelt®. Go to heidiboyd.com.

Also to spark your imagination is the newly released Crafty Critters book by Vickie Clontz of Annie's Keepsakes.

Inside you will find appealing woodland animal designs made from WoolFelt®. There are shoulder bags with fox and raccoon faces, a big-eyed owl case for eyeglasses or cell phones, and cute pincushions. Published by Leisure Arts (www.leisurearts.com).

Want a fun new way to create with WoolFelt®? Make a Wool Smoothie using a new piecing technique by Linda Zokan of Thistledown and Company. It allows you to create pieced WoolFelt projects without lumpy, bumpy, bulky, seams! The secret is Whisperlite tracer/foundation. It's not a fusible, and it's ultra lightweight so you won't be adding any bulk or weight to your project and it's a breeze to stitch through. A free pattern and tutorial basics available at www.thistledownquilts.com.
