

Canned... WoolFelt®?!?

Look closely at this picture... the canned cucumbers, peaches, and tomatoes are actually WoolFelt®, as is the watermelon mat underneath. Each market, there's always a couple displays that people stop, stare, and can't get enough of. At the 2018 International Quilt Market in Portland this was one of those displays. The felt fruit and veggies were created by Kathleen Berlew (flossandfleece.blogspot.com) for the Spring/Summer 2017 issue of Make It Yourself magazine (digital issues are available for purchase on Zinio). The candle mat was made by Kathy Bigott of Woolhearts (www.woolhearts.com).
